The SkyMed Group of Companies have grown under Mr. Klein's leadership and now celebrate 35 years of saving lives and member's money. More than half a million members have placed their trust in SkyMed and the company has performed thousands of services.

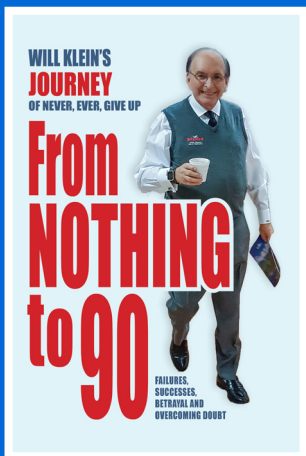

Mr. Klein has a multi-faceted background in broadcasting, marketing, sales, government, and corporate management. This extensive background has created a demand for his services as a public speaker to numerous organizations at local, national, and international levels.

He is an experienced chief executive officer with global views on the economy, world affairs and international travel having visited more than 40 countries, 49 states and all 10 provinces of Canada.

He is a humorist, lifelong sports fan, author, blogger and commentator on both politics and sports. His book, From Nothing to Ninety, sharing life experiences and lessons learned has been published by Freisen Press and has garnered a favorable Kirkus Review. It is available through bookstores and www.nothingto90.com.

Mr. Klein is a Member of the Order of Canada, appointed in 1983 to this prestigious group of Canadians earning him the highest civilian honor bestowed by the Governor General of Canada.

Will and his wife Eleanore have officially called Arizona home since 1985 and are dual citizens of the USA & Canada.
