ARIZONA & ONTARIO

ONTARIO IS A TOP CUSTOMER OF THE U.S.

- Ontario's longstanding relationship with the U.S. provides great economic benefit to both jurisdictions.
- In 2025, two-way goods traded between Ontario and the United States totalled $336.7B (USD).
- The U.S. and Ontario supply chains are highly integrated, with almost a quarter of Ontario's exports to the U.S. containing American import content.
- Millions of American jobs depend on Canada-U.S. trade and investment relationships.
- The U.S. exports more goods to Canada than to China, Netherlands and United Kingdom combined.
- Ontario accounts for more than half of the total trade between Canada and the U.S.
- If Ontario were a country, it would be the U.S.' third-largest trading partner after Mexico and China.
- Ontario accounts for over 38% of Canada's economy, with a market of more than 16 million potential customers.
